Legislative/Regulatory Requirements

The Act known as Christopher's Law (Sex Offender Registry), 2000 sets out the responsibilities of police services in relation to sex offenders in the province of Ontario. Among other obligations, the Act requires a sex offender, as defined in the Act, to report in person to the police service for the purposes of identification and registration. Each police service is required to submit offender information to the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services (Ministry) for inclusion in the Ontario Sex Offender Registry (OSOR).

Sample Board Policy

Board Policy # _____

It is the policy of the _____ Police Services Board with respect to the Ontario Sex Offender Registry that the Chief of Police will:

- a) designate and maintain a registration site(s);
- b) establish procedures and processes consistent with the requirements of Christopher's Law (Sex Offender Registry), 2000;
- c) establish procedures and processes consistent with the requirements legislated by the federal Sex Offender Information Registration Act;
- d) ensure that appropriate members receive training on the Ontario Sex Offender Registry, consistent with the role and responsibilities assigned to them; and
- e) ensure that appropriate members receive training on both the provincial and federal Sex Offender legislative requirements.

Police Service Guidelines

Registration Site

1. Every Chief of Police shall designate and maintain a registration site(s), within the area where it provides police services, at which an offender may present himself or herself for the purpose of:
  - a) providing police with satisfactory proof of his or her:
    - i) identity;
    - ii) name(s);

  - g) collect and submit additional information as prescribed by regulation;
  - h) make reasonable efforts to verify an offender's address, as provided to the police force by the offender, at least once after the offender last presented himself or herself to the police force.

Procedures

- 3. Every police service's procedures should:
  - a) identify designated staff position(s) with overall responsibility for the Ontario Sex Offender Registry, and legislative requirements of the federal Sex Offender Information Registration Act;
  - b) address the role and responsibilities of:
    - i) the registrar, including recording and submitting information provided by the offender, upon satisfaction that the information is correct, to the Ministry in the approved manner; and
    - ii) supervisors, investigators, police officers, communications operators/dispatchers and other members as appropriate;
  - c) address the security of the information collected for the Ontario and federal Sex Offender Registries, in accordance with the police service's procedures on the management of police records;
  - d) address the access authorization to the Ontario Sex Offender Registry by registrars, supervisors, investigators, police officers, communications operators/dispatchers and other members as appropriate;
  - e) set out the days and times when offenders may present themselves for the purpose of providing information;
  - f) address the mechanisms for tracking sex offenders, as defined by the Act, residing in the police service's jurisdiction;
  - g) set out the steps for initiating investigations and apprehensions of non-compliant offenders, including policies on the procedures for obtaining warrants;
  - h) set out the steps for accessing, recording, verifying and updating sex offender information, including the steps for:

- i) accessing offender information;
- ii) recording information obtained from the offender;
- iii) obtaining additional information on the offender (e.g., CPIC);
- iv) verifying information provided by the offender (i.e., name, date of birth);
- v) updating offender information, including status;
- vi) submitting offender information to the Ministry in an approved manner;
- i) ensure the entry of offenders on the Special Interest Police (SIP) category of CPIC in accordance with CPIC policy;
- j) address the use by supervisors of information obtained from the Ontario Sex Offender Registry for the purpose of crime prevention or law enforcement;
- k) require that appropriate information from the Ontario Sex Offender Registry be shared with patrol officers;
- l) address the sharing of information from the Ontario Sex Offender Registry with other police services in or outside of Canada and other relevant law enforcement agencies, where appropriate; and
- m) address the disclosure of personal information under section 41(1.1) of the Police Services Act.

Training 4. (1) Every Chief of Police should ensure that appropriate members receive training with respect to the Ontario Sex Offender Registry, consistent with the role and responsibilities assigned to them.

(2) Every Chief of Police should ensure that appropriate members receive training from the Ontario Sex Offender Registry with respect to the federal legislation (Sex Offender Information Registration Act) for the purposes of managing the sex offenders in their jurisdiction.
