Police Service Board Report

CONFIDENTIAL AGENDA

Subject: Special Investigations Unit – Case Number 25-OCI-107 – Incident of March 18, 2025

Report To: Chair and Members, Niagara Police Service Board

Report Date: 2025-12-17

Confidential Report

Confidential Report with respect to the legal matter of an identifiable individual – Community Safety and Policing Act, s. 44(2)(b) “personal matters about an identifiable individual, including members of the police service or any other employees of the board” and Community Safety and Policing Act 2019, s.44(2)(e) “litigation or potential litigation affecting the Board, including matters before administrative tribunals.”

Recommendation(s)

- 1. That the Niagara Police Service Board (Board) receive this report for information.
- 2. That the Board makes the report available to the public.

Key Facts

- The purpose of this report is to advise the Board of the findings and any action taken or recommended by the Chief of Police following a notification and investigation of an incident by the Special Investigations Unit (SIU). Section 81 of the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA) requires that the Chief of Police initiate an investigation following a notification to the SIU.
- The purpose of the Chief's investigation is to review the member's conduct in relation to the incident, the policing provided by the member in relation to the incident, and the procedures established by the Chief of Police as they related to the incident.
- On March 18, 2025, a notification was made to the SIU after Niagara Regional Police Service (NRPS) Tactical officers assisted the Hamilton Police Service (HPS) with a warrant in Ancaster. During the execution of the search warrant NRPS officers had an interaction with a male that resulted in a broken nose, resulting in the incident meeting the investigative mandate of the SIU.
- On July 16, 2025, the SIU notified the NRPS that their investigation had concluded and advised that there were no grounds for criminal charges against the subject official.

- The subsequent section 81 investigation by the NRPS Professional Standards Unit (PSU) determined there were no issues with respect to officer conduct, policies or services provided by the NRPS.

Financial Considerations

There are no financial implications relating to the recommendations contained in this report.

Analysis

On March 18, 2025, the NRPS Emergency Task Unit assisted the HPS with a warrant to search the complainant's residence in Ancaster. At 5:00 a.m., NRPS officers entered the residence. The complainant resisted but was taken into custody. After the arrest, the complainant was taken to Hamilton General Hospital (HGH) and, at 12:29 p.m., diagnosed with a broken nose and broken orbital bone.

On March 18, 2025, at 2:15 p.m., the NRPS contacted the SIU and provided details of the police interaction. The SIU subsequently invoked their mandate.

On March 20, 2025, the SIU designated one member as a subject official and two members as witness officials.

On July 16, 2025, the SIU closed its investigation into this matter. In his decision letter SIU Director Mr. Joseph Martino wrote, "In my view, there were no reasonable grounds in the evidence to proceed with criminal charges against the subject official".

A copy of the SIU report was publicly posted on the SIU's website.

In accordance with section 81, the PSU conducted an investigation and review of this incident, which considered the following 3 areas:

1. The member's conduct in relation to the incident;
2. The policing provided by the member(s) in relation to the incident; and
3. The procedures established by the chief of police as they related to the incident.

The section 81 investigation encompassed a compliance review of applicable provincial legislation, which governs members of the NRPS, as well as General Orders, policies and procedures, and the conduct of the involved officers.

Where available, investigations include a review of communication recordings, NRPS occurrence reports, forensic evidence and case-by-case reviews conducted by the SIU and all duty book notes, SIU documentation including the Director's decision letter and report, statements of civilian witnesses gathered and released by the SIU at the conclusion of their investigation upon the consent of the civilian witnesses, and any other information and evidence available on a case by case basis.

1. Conduct of NRPS Officers

There were no officer conduct issues identified during the SIU investigation or the PSU investigation and review of this incident regarding compliance with General Orders or legislation.

2. Services Provided by the NRPS

There were no issues identified relating to the services provided by NRPS during this incident.

3. The Procedures of the NRPS

PSU investigators determined that the following General Orders had primary relevance in this matter, and they have been reviewed accordingly in the context of this incident.

- 1) General Order 079.10 – Special Investigations Unit
- 2) General Order 089.08 – Emergency Task Unit
- 3) General Order 053.25 – Use of Force

Upon review, it was determined that the direction and guidance provided by the relevant General Orders was sufficient in its governance for members of the NRPS and no issues were identified.

The PSU investigation and review of this incident was undertaken in compliance with section 81 of the CSPA. The relevant procedures of the NRPS, the services provided, and the conduct of the involved NRPS members were the focus of this review and investigation.

In conclusion, there were no issues identified as it pertains to services provided, the conduct of the involved NRPS members, or the existing General Orders governing these situations.
